

100ABCWomen continues to appreciate, spotlight and celebrate 300 Accomplished Black Canadian Women who have made exceptional differences within their families, communities, provinces and Canada. We recognize them for their brilliance and commitment to doing good.

We look forward to presenting our Honourees through:

- ◇ Fireside Chats on topics that matter to you
- ◇ Symposiums
- ◇ Book Launch and Galas
- ◇ And More.....

Check out our monthly newsletters and website (www.100abcwomen.ca) for more details and updates.

Note: The Nomination process for 2022 Nominees is now open until June 30, 2021. Click on this link to nominate an Accomplished Black Canadian Woman Now!

The following 100 ABC Honourees have transitioned: Salome Bey, Kay Blair, Daphne Clarke, Denise Jones, Dr. Miriam Rossi, Eleanor Weltshire-Rodney & Megan Whitfield. May they rest in eternal peace.

Sincerely,

Hon. Dr. Jean Augustine, Dr. Denise O'Neil Green & Dauna Jones-Simmonds (co-authors)

Thank You

Congratulations to Extra-ordinary Women

Sharon Hinds has won a 2020 CEO Award! “If you thought becoming an Employee of the Year was a big accomplishment, being named a CEO Award winner is the highest level of recognition under the Ted Rogers Awards!” Adam Rainey
